LOUNGE AND BAR

Classic egg mayonnaise, quail egg, avruga caviar on white

Free range egg from Baldivis, WA
46km south of Point Zero

Our eggs arrive locally from Baldivis, a semi-rural area close to Perth that was named after three ships which brought settlers to Western Australia in 1922.

Grilled southern chicken and ranch wrap, Red Leicester cheese

Free range chicken from Mount Barker, WA
360km south-east of Point Zero

Mount Barker free range chickens in the Great Southern region are released from their barns and are free to forage from 3 weeks of age.

Crab and avocado sandwich, crème fraîche, chives

Crab from Shark Bay, WA
808km north-west of Point Zero

UNESCO World Heritage listed site Shark Bay produces tremendous quality blue swimmer crabs, also known as manna crabs or sand crabs.

Chestnut crémeux, vanilla mousse, pineapple confiture, frangipane tart

Chestnuts from Chestnut Brae Carlotta, WA
280km south of Point Zero

Located in Western Australia's South West, Chestnut Brae Farm's 30 year old sweet chestnut trees produce 9 tonnes of sweet chestnuts each year.

Passion fruit and Manjari mousse, banana compote, biscuit chocolat

Bananas from Carnarvon, WA
899km north-west of Point Zero

Carnarvon's 180 plus banana plantations produce $46 million worth of produce annually (more than half of Western Australia's banana crops).

Rhubarb and strawberry profiteroles — white chocolate and strawberry whipped ganache swirl, rhubarb and strawberry confiture

Rhubarb from Woodbridge, WA
16km north-east of Point Zero

Rhubarb grows best in cool to warm conditions meaning autumn in Western Australia is the ideal time to enjoy this locally grown, dessert-friendly vegetable.
